SUMMARY OF THE METEOROLOGICAL AND RAINFALL OBSERVATIONS TAKEN IN BENGAL, AND OF THE METEOROLOGICAL OBSERVATIONS TAKEN IN ASSAM, FOR THE MONTH OF AUGUST 1903.

During July rainfall had been much in defect over a great part of the Province owing, apparently, to the repeated occurrence over the north of the Bay of small cyclonic disturbances, which moved westward instead of in the usual north-westerly direction. The last of the series was in the north of the Bay at the beginning of August, and weather was unchanged in Bengal. Light showers fell in Orissa and Bengal Proper, but in Bihar skies were almost cloudless, rainfall practically nil, and temperature about 10° above the normal of the season.

A change, however, was in progress, and was first shown by the course of the shallow depression after it crossed the Orissa coast It moved in the same westerly direction as the earlier members of the series, until it was over Central India; but instead of continuing towards the west, it recurved and entered Bengal from the west about the 4th. General rain began on the 5th in Bihar and continued during the four succeeding days. Well-marked monsoon weather prevailed over the Province, and rainfall was heavy in places. After four days of generally unsettled weather pressure rose rapidly about the 8th, rainfall partially ceased, and weather was fine in the western districts

On the 10th and 11th pressure was high over the north of the Bay, excess at the Orissa stations being nearly ·2 inch. But on the latter date a noticeable change had commenced. Pressure began to fall along the hills, and extended southward over the Province during the day. Strong southerly winds were general over the Province, and very heavy rain fell in the northern and eastern districts and in Assam The falls were exceptionally heavy near the Himalayas Between the 12th and 14th Baxa received 26 inches, and several other North Bengal stations had daily falls of 4 to 5 inches, while in Champaran the rainfall was in places even heavier than in North Bengal. The fall at Bagaha on the 12th and 13th was 15 inches, and at Ramnagar 13 inches

Over the Province during these days rainfall was general, and was probably caused by local thunderstorms.

The fall of pressure, which began in the east and passed along the Himalayan range, was followed by the usual rise and its accompaniments—heavy rainfall and low temperature. The area of lowest temperature was over North Bengal on the 12th, Bihar on the 13th, and after a local fall in Assam on the 14th a general recovery took place on the 15th.

For some days subsequently ordinary weather prevailed, with light general showers in all parts of the Province About the 18th a shallow depression began to form over the Bay farther south than is usual at that season of the year. It developed very little and crossed the Orissa coast on the 20th. The strongest winds experienced after the depression passed inland were just over 20 miles an hour at Puri.

As usual rainfall diminished inland while the depression was over the Bay, and almost ceased in Bihar, but afterwards there were several days of general rainfall, beginning in Lower Bengal on the 21st and in Bihar on the 24th This burst of rainfall continued until the 27th, when another depression began to form over the Bay.

As before, the depression was off the coast of the Circars and attained to no great depth. Weather was more disturbed, however, over the Bay, and became squally over a wide area The central area of the depression crossed the coast on the 30th, and thereafter strong winds were reported from stations on the coast between Puri and Vizagapatam.

The strongest wind was 32 miles an hour at Gopalpur on an average for the 31st.

On the 30th and 31st rainfall was again general in all parts of the Province except Bihar, to which the showers extended in the early days of September.

Pressure oscillations were generally small, and the variation from the normal was rarely more than moderate in Bengal. Over the Bay the greatest defect occurred near the end of the month when the third depression developed, and then it was only ·2 inch. The depression at the beginning of the month and the second just after the middle of the month were shallow for the time of the year.

The changes of greatest interest were those which occurred in Bengal at the end of the first week and early part of the second. An important general change was then in progress, shown by the recurving of the depression at the beginning of the month, probably due to the development of low-pressure conditions to the north of the area of observation. The large oscillations of pressure on the 7th and 8th were no doubt connected with that general change. Three days later the fall of pressure was shown along the Himalayan range, and a period of disturbed weather began with heavy rainfall in the extreme north.

During the latter part of the month pressure changes were generally unimportant in Bengal.

Mean pressure for the month as a whole was in slight excess except in the west of Bihar, where there was a small defect.

Temperature was very high for the season in the north of the Province at the beginning of the month, especially in the west of Bihar, where excess was in places as much as 10°. As the general change then in progress developed and cloud with rain increased in the northern districts, this excess disappeared and was followed by a considerable defect—greatest in North Bengal.

Maximum temperature for the month was above the normal by 1° to 2° except in North Bengal and the east of North Bihar, where there was defect of half a degree. The difference from normal minimum temperature varied from defect of half a degree in East Bengal to excess of nearly 1° in Orissa and Chota Nagpur.

Mean excess was about 1° in North Bengal and Bihar, and about half a degree in other divisions except East Bengal, where mean temperature was practically normal. In Assam there was defect of nearly 1°.

Rainfall.—The partial drought, which was so noticeable a feature in the north of the Province in July, came to an end on the 4th of August, when with the recurving of the shallow depression from the Bay general rain began in all parts of Bengal. From that time onwards to the end of the month showery weather continued with brief interruptions when the depressions during the latter half of the month were forming over the west of the Bay

The most noteworthy occurrence, subsequent to the important change which was developing during the early days of August, was the very heavy rainfall in the northern districts and the Lower Himalayan slopes—on the 12th and 13th, general along the hills, but most marked in North Bengal and the west of Bihar. Chiefly owing to the falls of those days a large excess is shown in the Jalpaiguri district and the northern parts of the Purnea, Bhagalpur, and Champaran districts. A large excess is also shown in Mymensingh and the south of Chittagong.

Generally over the Province there was a small and somewhat irregular excess in the eastern districts with the exception of the Sundarbans, and a small defect in the western districts. In small isolated tracts defect was as much as 5 inches. The more important of these areas of deficient rainfall are in the Midnapore, Singhbhum, and Lohardaga districts, showing an irregular and comparatively narrow tract of country, extending from the mouth of the Hooghly north-westward as far as Shahabad, in which the deficiency averaged about 5 inches. The average defect in Chota Nagpur is 3 inches, in Orissa 1·7 inch, and in South-West Bengal half an inch. In the other divisions there was excess, small in Bihar, but considerable in East and North Bengal.

The comparison of the actual rainfall in the various large divisions of the Province with the normal is most accurately and conveniently shown in the form of a percentage. The figures representing the rainfall for the month, calculated in this way, are included in the table below under the heading of August. This table really gives a condensed summary of the rainfall statistics of the present year up to date for each meteorological division, the first eight columns giving the actual average rainfall in each division in each month, expressed as a percentage of the normal, while the ninth column gives the total rainfall for the first eight months expressed as a percentage of the normal rainfall for that period:—

The mean pressure, temperature, etc., are deduced from the traces of the Barograph and Thermograph, and from eye observations.

The maximum and minimum temperatures are obtained from self-registering thermometers. All the thermometers are verified and the readings have been corrected to a standard constructed and verified at the Kew Observatory. They are exposed under a thatched shed open at the sides, and are suspended four feet above the ground.

The barometer readings are corrected approximately to those of the standard, Newman's No. 86, formerly at the Surveyor-General's Office.

The hygrometric elements are obtained from Tables III, IV and V of the official tables computed in the Meteorological Office, and based on Regnault's modifications of August's formula.

The directions and the movement of the wind are taken from the trace of a Beckley's anemograph.

The mouth of the rain-gauge is one foot above the ground. Rainfall reported on any day is for the 24 hours proceding 8 A.M. of that day.

o, overcast; g, gloomy; d, drizzling rain; p, passing temporary showers; t, thunder.

AUSTRALIA—GULF ST VINCENT.

Port Adelaide river—Alterations in beacons consequent on Light's Passage harbour works

WITH reference to Notices to Mariners No. 204, dated 15th June, and No. 289, dated 29th August 1903, issued by this Office, the British Admiralty has given further notice that the following alterations which have been found necessary will be made on or about the 30th August next :—

The Beacons forming No. 1 Lead will be removed altogether.

In lieu thereof two Beacons showing Green Lights will be placed on the North Bank—one near the present Reflecting Beacon and the other opposite the present No. 1 White Light, as shown on plan which may be obtained at these offices.

Two Light Beacons (both red) will be placed on the North Bank, which, when in line, will lead through the Cutting to the Bend, and will be hereafter termed No. 1 Lead.

Sailing Directions.—To enter the River pass the Occulting Light Buoy at a distance of about 50 feet, and steer between the White Light on a Pile abreast the old Light-house and the first Green Light, which is placed between the Reflecting Beacon and the Cutting on a N.E. by E. course, passing the second Green Light at a similar distance until the New Lead on the North Bank (now termed No. 1 Lead) comes in line. Keep them in line until abreast of No. 2, then steer for No. 3 as before.

This affects Admiralty Chart No. 1750.

P.S.—Owing to the nature of the work in progress this notice may require to be amended from time to time, and therefore should be treated as tentative only.

During the progress of the work at the Light's Passage Harbour, Masters exempt from pilotage may, if they so desire, avail themselves of the services of a pilot to assist them in passing the works, either in or out, at one-half of the usual pilotage rates.

If the usual exemption flag is not hoisted, it will be taken as a signal that a pilot is required. At night, if a pilot is wanted, the usual signal for a pilot should be shown.

KOREA—QUELPART ISLAND, SOUTH COAST.

Navoska rock—Non-existence of.

THE British Admiralty has given notice (No. 664 of 1903) that as the results of numerous searches for the Naboska rock to the southward of Quelpart island show no indication of its existence, it has been expunged from the charts.

This rock, on which the Russian transport Naboska was reported to have been lost in April 1870, was unsuccessfully searched for by H. M. surveying vessel Sylvia in 1877, when a sounding of 57 fathoms, mud bottom, was the least water obtained anywhere within two miles of the reported position.

Mr. G. C. Anderson, Master of the ship Conquest, reports having frequently passed in 1875 and 1876, within two miles of the supposed position of this rock, without seeing any indication of shoal water.

A thorough search was also made in 1885 by Captain Phythian, U.S.S. Trenton, and latterly in February 1903 Captain A. A. Dalweritz, of the American schooner Forester, reports having passed close to the assigned position of this rock, obtaining at the same time a sounding of 55 fathoms, mud bottom, without seeing any sign of shoal water.

RESOLUTION REVIEWING THE ADMINISTRATION REPORT OF THE CALCUTTA MUNICIPALITY FOR THE YEAR 1902-1903.

MUNICIPAL DEPARTMENT.—MUNICIPAL.

Darjeeling, the 19th September 1903.

RESOLUTION—No. 2484T—M.

READ—

The Administration Report of the Calcutta Municipality for the year 1902-1903.

Read again—

The Reports for the years 1900-1901 and 1901-1902 and the Resolutions recorded by the Lieutenant-Governor thereon.

More than three years have now elapsed since the beginning of April 1900, when the amended new Calcutta Municipal Act of 1899 came into force; and the first body of Commissioners who have held their appointments under the new Act have completed their term of office. The Lieutenant-Governor, therefore, gladly avails himself of the present opportunity to review as a whole the work which has been accomplished during that period.

2. The first impression conveyed by a [illegible] of the report for the year 1902-1903 is that it is a record of strenuous [illegible] many-sided activity. Two hundred and thirty-one meetings of variou[illegible] were held during the year, and the results are apparent in the Departmental Reports and in the long statement of 129 improvements, completed or in progress during the year, which is to be found in pages 53—56 of the appendices to Part I of the Report. The table in question contains only those improvements of which the cost exceeds Rs. 1,000, and the aggregate sanctioned expenditure on the works included in the list amounts to over 14 lakhs. To the evidence contained in the report and its appendices Mr. Bourdillon is able to add his personal testimony, for he had the advantage of sitting as a Commissioner and as a Member of the General Committee during a short period of the year under review, and he was much struck not only with the immense amount of work that came up for disposal, but with the business-like manner in which it was despatched.

3. In accordance with instructions issued by Government in reviewing the report for 1901-1902, the Corporation appointed a Special Committee to examine the Chairman's Report and adopted the review which was in due course submitted to it. Almost the whole of the review was taken up with an examination of the manner in which the accounts were exhibited, and of cases in which the budget grants were exceeded. The Committee explained that they drew attention to these instances of excess expenditure, because they deemed it desirable that in future the Corporation should be in a better position to exercise a check such as had been possible in past years. This criticism is sound, and is in fact applicable to the general business of the Corporation; for the Lieutenant-Governor is constrained to say that in the Municipal Administration of Calcutta in the past year sufficient regard has not invariably been paid to the formalities prescribed by the law. The Chairman's attention has been drawn to this matter on more than one occasion, and an improvement in this respect is confidently anticipated. To prevent a recurrence of the illegality noticed by the Special Committee, the simplest expedient would be for the Corporation to pass a revised budget before the close of each year. Such a budget must necessarily be prepared, either formally or informally, before that for the ensuing year can be accurately drawn up; and the procedure now recommended is already followed by the Supreme Government, by all the Local Governments in India, and by the Mufassal Municipalities and District Boards throughout the Province. With reference to one of the suggestions made by the Committee, that there should be a fuller tabulated list of all the appendices and statements, the attention of the Chairman will be drawn to the concluding portion of paragraph 2 of Mr. Collin's letter No. 3111M., dated 3rd December 1902, in which it was suggested that a list and index of the appendices, showing clearly the subjects to which they relate, should be furnished at the commencement of the report.

4. The Lieutenant-Governor is glad to note that the financial position of the Corporation is thoroughly sound. Their net indebtedness, that is the amount they owe less the amount to credit in the sinking funds, has increased by a little over 15 lakhs in the last three years, but in the same time their borrowing power has increased by nearly 21 lakhs. During that period the Commissioners borrowed 38½ lakhs, of which 31 lakhs have been invested in drainage and water-supply schemes and in other improvements. Nor do there seem to be any valid grounds for the apprehensions that have been expressed from time to time that when the present reassessment operations are complete the municipal income will cease to expand at the same rate as heretofore. It is true that in the last ten years the assessed valuation of the town has increased by 25·8 per cent., but in the same period the population has increased by 24·8 per cent., excise receipts by 32 per cent., exports and imports by 40 per cent., and income-tax receipts by 52·1 per cent. It is well known also to those who live in the central portion of Calcutta that the rise of rents in recent years has been very great. There seems therefore no reason for regarding the expansion which has taken place in the municipal revenues as in any way abnormal, or for expecting that it will proceed at a less rapid rate in the future.

5. The most important task accomplished in the last three years, and that by which no doubt the late Administration will be chiefly remembered, has been the reorganisation of every department by which the work of the municipality is carried on. The reforms proceeded on the well-known and well-tried lines of definition of authority, devolution of powers, and increase in the numbers and pay of the supervising staff.

6. The first and most important reform undertaken was the reorganisation of the three great spending Departments of the Corporation, viz., those of Engineering, Public Health, and Conservancy. A consideration of the problems involved and of the best way of solving them led eventually to the adoption of the following measures:—

(a) the amalgamation with the Engineering Department of the Conservancy Department which had hitherto been under the Health Officer;

(b) the formation of a separate Building Department under an officer possessing the qualifications of an Architect and an Engineer for whom a salary of Rs. 750 rising to Rs. 1,000 was sanctioned; and

(c) the decentralisation of municipal work by the division of Calcutta into four districts, each equipped with a complete establishment for the working of—

(1) the Health Department under a District Health Officer;

(2) the Building Department under a District Building Surveyor, and

(3) the amalgamated Engineering and Conservancy Department under a District Engineer.

7. The rather curious amalgamation of the Conservancy and Engineering Departments was due to the fact that their work had in practice been found to overlap. The Engineer was in charge of the repairing and the watering of the roads and the cleaning of the surface drains, while the Health Officer was responsible for the scraping of the roads and for all other conservancy matters. Thus different gangs of coolies under separate control worked at the same place, and moreover the gowkhanas which were in charge of the Health Officer had to supply cattle both for watering the roads and for conservancy purposes. So long as this arrangement was in force complaints were received that conservancy coolies had been seen throwing rubbish into the ditches for engineering coolies to remove, and vice versâ, and there was also friction in connection with the supply of cattle to the two Departments. The amalgamation of the two Departments was no doubt a simple and effective remedy for this antagonism, but the reform might have been made on different lines, and the Corporation should consider whether it is not advisable to appoint a separate conservancy officer for each of the four districts. The effectual supervision of the conservancy arrangements in one-fourth part of Calcutta is certainly a task sufficient to occupy the whole time of one officer, and it is obviously desirable that the district conservancy officers should be completely subordinate to the Health Officer of Calcutta instead of being under the Engineer of the Corporation.

8. The creation of the four districts referred to was undoubtedly the most far-reaching of all the reforms carried out. The establishment necessary for the working of the scheme has been appointed, and the material equipment has been supplied or is at present under construction. Of the four gowkhanas required two are already in existence, and two are being provided. Two new district offices are also being erected, while the new buildings for the head office will supply the needs of a third, and the fourth is at present located in a hired house. It is reported that the practice of holding meetings of the Ward Commissioners in these district offices has been introduced with good results: it is said that useful improvements and schemes are suggested and discussed at these meetings, and that the wants of the rate-payers are thus brought directly to the notice of the executive staff. The Lieutenant-Governor endorses the opinion expressed by the Chairman that the development of this system appears to offer the most promising results for the development of Municipal Administration in Calcutta. What course the development shall take is, however, a matter of extreme importance. If the Ward Commissioners are allowed a considerable measure of autonomy, the question of financial decentralisation will necessarily arise; for even if no other reason exists, it is in this way alone that the Ward Commissioners can be given a sufficient incentive to economy. If the reform arrives safely and satisfactorily at this stage, it will afford much needed relief to the central Committees, and to all the offices and officers at head-quarters; but if the movement is a healthy one, these questions will arise in the natural course of development and will not require to be unduly forced.

9. The reorganisation of the Accounts Department, which has undoubtedly been one of the weak spots in the Municipal Administration of Calcutta hitherto, was undertaken early; but owing to the magnitude and difficulty of the task it was almost the last to be finished. In November 1900, the services of Mr. U L. Mazumdar, Assistant Accountant-General, Bengal, were lent to the Corporation for this special duty; but after he had been at work for some months, and had drawn up a report, it was found that certain internal reforms in the Engineering Department which were urgently called for, could best be effected by changes in the system of accounts. In the course of his arbitration report on the so-called "invalid contracts" Mr. Buckley, C.S.I., pointed out that matters which Subordinate Engineers ought to have disposed of themselves on the spot, and which they alone ought to have been held responsible for, were referred to the Central Office; and that in consequence of this defect in procedure delays occurred, responsibility was divided and lost, and there was overlapping of authority and jurisdiction. In order to remedy these evils he suggested that this branch of the accounts should be modelled on those of the Public Works Department. His proposal was accepted, and Mr. W. F. Barrow, Examiner, Public Works Accounts, Bengal, was called in to complete the scheme of reorganisation in accordance with his suggestion. Mr. Barrow's recommendations, many of which had been introduced under his supervision in the course of the year under review, were finally adopted by the Corporation after its close. The Corporation further decided to appoint a Chartered Accountant with experience of Municipal Accounts to be the head of the Department, and steps were taken to secure the services of a thoroughly competent man, the salary offered being Rs. 750 rising to Rs. 1,000. This last decision has received the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor on two grounds: first, because, if the accounts are to be audited by a firm of Chartered Accountants, it is desirable that the head of the Department should be a Chartered Accountant; and in the second place because the system of accounts to which a Chartered Accountant is trained is a commercial system specially devised for the purpose of showing profit and loss, and it is desirable that the Corporation should know precisely how they stand in regard to the various paying and spending Departments under them.

10. While the reforms which have already been considered have undoubtedly borne good fruit, none of the efforts of the Corporation towards improvement have been rewarded with such immediate and gratifying proofs of success as their remodelling of the Collection Department. Under the former system the Collector was paid a commission of Re. 1-4 per cent. on collections in the town area, and the Joint-Collector received Re. 1-6 per cent. on those in the added area. These rates were reduced in October 1900 to Re. 1-1 and Re. 1-5, respectively. Only sums voluntarily paid were, however, realised by this agency, and all bills which were not satisfied on presentation were transferred to a separate Warrant Department for disposal. Chiefly owing to the delays which resulted from this system there was a heavy accumulation of arrears, which constantly elicited the unfavourable comments of the Government, and which amounted to over 7¼ lakhs on the 31st March 1900. The Collection Department was reorganised with effect from 1st May 1901. A Collector, who was vested with the powers hitherto exercised by the Warrant Officer, was appointed on Rs. 750 rising to Rs. 1,000 a month, and he was provided with a sufficient establishment. The task of clearing off the old arrears proved to be one of extreme difficulty, as the accounts and the bills had got into very great confusion; but the working of the new Department left little to be desired. The current collections in 1901-1902 amounted to 98·33 per cent., and in 1902-1903 to 99·08 per cent., of the net current demand. Moreover in the latter year less than 2 per cent. of the collections were realised by recourse to coercive measures; and altogether only in 42 cases were distrained properties removed, and only in 16 cases were they sold. Such results merit the hearty commendation of the Lieutenant-Governor

11. The remaining reforms call for little remark. The License and Hackney Carriage Departments were reorganised mainly by the simple process of paying the head of the Department an adequate salary, and giving him a sufficient establishment. The same procedure was followed in the case of the Assessor's Department, with the addition that the agency for periodical re-assessment was separated from that for keeping the ordinary assessment up to date. It is seldom good policy to starve an earning Department, and in all these cases the increased expenditure will no doubt be justified by increased receipts. The cost of the Secretary's Department has been raised from Rs. 12,900 to Rs. 16,888; but the work is now said to be performed with greater promptitude and efficiency, and the Lieutenant Governor sees no reason to doubt the wisdom of the additional outlay.

12. All this reorganisation is of course only a means to an end, the end being mainly the increased health, comfort and convenience of the rate-payers and others residing in Calcutta; but these advantages cannot be obtained until the new organisations are complete and in working order The Collection Department was one of the first to be dealt with, and as explained above the changes made have already been fully justified by the results. In the Assessor's, the Accounts, the Hackney Carriage and the License Departments, the reforms were completed during the year or after its close, and their influence will no doubt be more apparent during the current year. In the case of the Conservancy Department, however, the full benefit cannot be reaped till the new gowkhanas have been completed and the district administrations are in working order; and the Building Department, the chief function of which is to prevent the aggravation of existing evils, cannot be expected to entirely justify its existence till some years have elapsed. These facts have to be taken into account in estimating the progress that has been achieved, and it is necessary to repeat that a considerable time must be allowed to elapse before the reforms in the various Departments can be completely carried out resulting in the improved condition of the population, and the more pleasing aspect of the town.

13. The two chief works which the Corporation have in hand are the Suburban Drainage Scheme and the Continuous Water-supply Scheme. As regards the former the Lieutenant-Governor agrees with the Chairman that it is a cause for special congratulation that the difficulties in connection with the so-called "invalid contracts" have been overcome, and that work has been resumed under eight separate contracts. In the matter of the introduction of the system for the continuous supply of filtered water, which has been estimated to cost fifteen lakhs, the progress made has been unsatisfactory, for the continuous supply has been extended only to an area in the north of the city which has a population of 126,000 persons. The prospect of a speedy extension of the reform to the remaining portions of Calcutta is discussed in a somewhat despondent spirit in the departmental report of the Engineer's Department; for it is said that when negligence is so general the cost of meters would be prohibitive, and that unless consumers exercise reasonable care and economy in the use of water the supply available will never be able to meet the demand. The Lieutenant-Governor is not prepared to accept this opinion without reserve, but nevertheless, in view of the apprehensions expressed by the head of the Department responsible for the work, His Honour considers that the Corporation have acted wisely in deciding to send to England for an expert to deal with the subject.

14. The parts of Calcutta which will benefit most from the division of the town into four self-contained districts, and the consequent decentralisation of work, are those which are furthest from the centre of administration, namely, the north and the south. In the North District No. I has been formed out of Wards 1 to 6, and in the South District No. IV now comprises Wards 18 and 21 to 25. These two districts are being equipped with new gowkhanas and new district offices at a cost of about 3½ lakhs, and each district has also been provided with four steam-rollers, the total number of steam-rollers in the town having been raised from ten to sixteen. Other works completed during the year in District No. I were a new dhobikhana, a new cemetery, three new squares, and several new roads. In this quarter also the Continuous Water-supply System has been introduced. The Lieutenant-Governor hopes that the particular attention of the Commissioners will be devoted to the needs of the north of the town: no doubt it will benefit greatly by the Calcutta Improvement Scheme when that has been carried out, but in the meantime His Honour hopes that this area will be considered as having the first claim on the care and solicitude of the Corporation and its officers. In District No. IV, the Lansdowne Market is under construction, the Sterndale Road has been completed, and the Corporation have in hand schemes more or less advanced for the construction of roads sixty feet wide at a cost of about 21 lakhs. In this direction also the Corporation have abandoned the policy of allowing the town to grow haphazard, and have provided a temporary staff of three surveyors for the alignment of the growing areas. Both in the north and south moreover the Corporation contemplate the acquisition and preparation of land for the formation of new suburbs. In the central districts, II and III, the most important works are the new Municipal Office Building, the extension of the New Market, the model dwellings in Convent Road, and the Incinerator at Entally. As already noted a considerable time must elapse before the full effect of the administrative changes lately introduced can be fully felt, but Mr. Bourdillon has visited from time to time a considerable part of the town and is satisfied that a substantial improvement has already been effected in its condition

15. During the past three years, the Corporation have vigorously pursued the policy of mending or ending obnoxious bustees, while at the same time they have opened out insanitary areas by constructing a number of public squares and making new roads or widening old ones. The immediate result of these measures, however, has necessarily been to intensify the overcrowding in the similar areas that are left untouched. This overcrowding with its concomitant circumstances is admittedly the greatest sanitary blot on the city, and it is to remedy these evils that the Improvement Scheme to which the Chairman several times refers has been devised. In connection with this subject an interesting table is given in Appendix C, showing the population and the number of occupied houses returned at the census of 1901, and the corresponding figures for the previous census of 1891. From this it would appear that while the population has increased by 24·82 per cent., the number of houses has increased by 70·24 per cent., and that there has been a very great improvement. Unfortunately it happens that the comparison is vitiated by the definition of "house" adopted in 1901 being different from that employed in 1891, and instead of an improvement, there has in reality been a marked and grave deterioration. The following table compares the ten most overcrowded wards at the two periods:—

No of Ward	Name of thana	Total Population		No of males in every 100 of the population in 1901.	Population per acre.		Death rate.
		In 1891	In 1901.		In 1891.	In 1901.	In 1892	In 1902.
1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
3	Burtola, Maniktola ...	36,431	50,216	58 4	100·36	138 34	31 6	39 5
5	Jorabagan ...	59,180	49,039	67 3	161·23	201 93	23·0	49 0
6	Jorasanko ..	41,657	52,958	61·2	153 99	202 24	37·0	41 2
7	Barabazar ...	20,616	31,674	79 1	95 15	145 50	26 5	34 5
8	Colootola ...	50,781	63,170	70 9	226·70	282 01	25 9	40 2
9	Muchipara ...	49,472	64,116	65 4	185·11	243 79	32·1	34·3
10	Bowbazar ..	22,668	27,052	70 5	154·21	184 03	26·5	35 8
11	Puddopukur	24,761	28,040	61 8	175 07	169 01	29 8	33 6
13	Fenwick Bazar	25,366	31 212	76·4	147·74	162 72	29·7	33 4
14	Taltalla	24,207	32 237	64 2	147 51	162 81	30 1	28 3

A high ratio of males to females means that a large proportion of the population consists of adult males in the prime of life, and it is obvious that but for unfavourable sanitary conditions, such as overcrowding and its consequences, the death-rate should be a very low one. To this overcrowding must no doubt be attributed the recent increase in phthisis to which attention is drawn in the report.

16. The state of affairs disclosed by the figures quoted in the preceding paragraph is one that cannot be viewed without the gravest concern. The Lieutenant-Governor is, however, glad to observe that the Commissioners are fully alive to the evils of overcrowding. One of their most important reforms has been the constitution of a separate Building Department, and since the close of the year they have been considering what steps they themselves can take in the direction of solving the problem. They are of opinion that the city cannot expand eastwards, and that space for new suburbs must be sought to the north and the south, and they have resolved to take up and lay out land in those directions. They have not yet discussed the means by which rapid communication is to be established between the new suburbs and the business quarter of the city, but no doubt they contemplate an extension of the tramway system. The introduction on the tramways of electric traction was completed on the 18th November 1902, and it may be hoped that in Calcutta, as in other large towns in Europe and America, a vigorous extension of the system will be followed by an overflowing of the town into the surrounding country. The following are the broad lines of the policy which Mr. Bourdillon would recommend for the consideration of the Commissioners:—(1) To acquire, prepare, and lay out land as proposed by them, but perhaps on a somewhat larger scale; (2) either in connection with the Improvement Scheme or apart from it, to arrange for a large extension of the tramway system, a sine quâ non of which must be the provision of cheap fares at certain hours for coolies, servants, and artisans; and (3) the strict enforcement, and if need be the enlargement, of the existing provisions as to overcrowding. As regards the last point, His Honour has already drawn the attention of the Chairman to the recent Act of the Colony of Hongkong entitled "The Public Health and Buildings Ordinance, No. 1 of 1903," the wider provisions of which might be adapted to Calcutta when once the arrangements for housing the labouring classes in the suburbs have been completed.

17. As regards the working of the Calcutta Municipal Act of 1899, the conclusion which the Lieutenant-Governor draws from the brief review given above is that there is no want of driving power in the revised constitution created by the Act in question. It was passed at a time when action was urgently called for at the first onset of plague, and it has fulfilled the object of preventing action from being strangled by debate. One defect has already been pointed out, viz., that in the hurry and press of the enormous mass of work disposed of the necessary legal formalities have not always been duly complied with, but this is perhaps not altogether a matter of surprise when it is remembered that the expenditure of the Corporation equals the Provincial expenditure of a minor province provided with all the machinery of a Local Government. It is to be regretted also that the Municipal Commissioners who were opposed to the Act of 1899 should still continue to hold aloof from the Administration, but Mr. Bourdillon is glad to welcome the return of Babu Nalin Behari Sircar, C.I.E., to Municipal work, and hopes that his reappearance as a Commissioner may be taken as an indication that the period of estrangement will soon be passed. In this connection the Corporation should consider whether steps should not be taken to secure that the procedure prescribed in the new Act for the preparation of the election roll may be taken advantage of to a larger extent.

18. Mr. Greer was Chairman throughout the year. Mr. Blackwood held the office of Deputy Chairman till August 1902, and is said to have proved himself to be an energetic and able officer. To both those officers, and to the other officers of the Corporation, the hearty thanks of the Lieutenant-Governor are due; and His Honour also tenders his cordial acknowledgments to the whole of the late body of Commissioners, particularly the General Committee for the excellent work they have done during their three years tenure of office. Their task has been one of no little difficulty, and has been carried out in the face of much criticism and some misrepesentaion : but the period which has just expired, though it has been marked with some mistakes, inevitable in the early years of a new institution, has been one of vigour and progress, and the Corporation and its officers are justified in looking back upon it with pride and satisfaction.

Rate, land revenue demand and gross rental.

3. The cesses were, as in the preceding year, levied at the maximum rate of one anna in the rupee in the 43 districts in which the Cess Act, IX (B. C.) of 1880, is in force. The current demand of land revenue of the 43 districts is Rs. 3,98,19,307, and the valuation, or gross rental, amounts to Rs. 17,49,73,823. These districts include Singhbhum, where the Act is in operation in parganas Dhalbhum and Porahat only. The Act has been introduced in the recently re-settled estates in the Sonthal Parganas, but there was no demand during the year.

Demands, collections, balances and remissions.

4. * * * In the subjoined table the demands, collections, balances and remissions of the year are compared with the two preceding years:—

YEAR.	DEMAND.			Collections.	Percentage of total collections on current demand.	Balance.	Percentage of the balance on the total demand.	Remissions.
	Current.	Arrear.	Total.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.		Rs.		Rs.
1900-1901	91,85,325	16,74,304	1,08,59,629	92,02,874	100·1	16,71,948	15·4	70,321
1901-1902	93,26,543	16,75,523	1,10,02,066	93,13,325	99·8	16,84,918	15·3	66,878
1902-1903	95,94,201	16,70,927	1,12,65,128	96,34,504	100·4	16,39,104	14·5	67,751

As compared with the previous year, the current demand shows an increase of Rs. 2,67,658. This result was mainly due to revaluations in the districts of the 24-Parganas (Rs. 59,914), Nadia (Rs. 16,385), Khulna (Rs. 7,295), Bogra (Rs. 16,028), Backergunge (Rs. 8,632), Gaya (Rs. 38,036), Shahabad (Rs. 30,952) and Purnea (Rs. 46,538), and to the assessment of coal mines in Manbhum (Rs. 15,919), and Burdwan (Rs. 19,798) and also to the assessment of the resumed chakaran (service) lands in latter district. When compared with 1900-1901, the current demand shows an increase of Rs. 4,08,876. The arrear demand has decreased by Rs. 4,596 and Rs. 3,377 as compared with the two preceding years. It is satisfactory to note that simultaneously with the large increase in the current demand of the year under report, there was an increase in collections by Rs. 3,21,179, giving a percentage of 100·4 against 99·8 in the previous year and 100·1 in 1900-1901. As a result of good collections of the year the outstanding balance declined by Rs. 45,814, and the percentage on the total demand improved, being 14·5 against 15·3 in the preceding year and 15·4 in 1900-1901. The remissions, which amounted to Rs. 67,751, were chiefly granted in the districts of Burdwan (Rs. 6,672), Noakhali (Rs. 11,666), Puri (Rs. 8,521), Hazaribagh (Rs. 2,804), Manbhum (Rs. 13,489) and Singhbhum (Rs. 7,520). In Burdwan this was necessary on account of erroneous and double assessment and the closure of some coal mines; while in Noakhali the major portion of the amount remitted represented the accumulated nominal balance of Chakla Bamni, and was the effect of the revaluation of some tenures under section 13 of the Act. Of the amount remitted in Puri, Rs. 680 represent the reduction of cesses due to revaluation recently completed, and Rs. 7,891 were reduced owing to the transfer of five wrongly treated rent-free lands. In Hazaribagh, Manbhum, and Singhbhum, the large reductions were attributed to the revision of assessment of mines and forests which is annually made under section 79 of the Act. Out of Rs. 2,804 in Hazaribagh Rs. 626 were remitted from the arrear and Rs. 2,178 from the current demand owing to objections filed by the assessees. Some coal mines were assessed in Manbhum as well as in Burdwan, but the assessees' chief place of business being in the latter district, the assessment of Rs. 8,943 made in Manbhum was cancelled. A sum of Rs. 3,526 had also to be reduced in regard to some coal-mines summarily assessed, on the production of account books by the proprietors. Of the remainder, Rs. 770 were reduced by the Commissioner on appeal, and Rs. 250 were remitted, as irrecoverable, on account of hills and forests of Taraf Dhadka. In Singhbhum Rs. 4,773 were remitted in favour of the Raja of Porahat, as he derived no profit from the Porahat Reserved Forest.

2. Muzaffarpur.	12. Patna.
3. Ranchi.	13. Khulna.
4. Hazaribagh.	14. Cuttack.
5. Chittagong.	15. Champaran.

8. Rangpur.	18. Saran.
9. Darbhanga.	19. Bhagalpur.
10. Monghyr.	20. Balasore.

5. The districts are grouped in two classes, (i) those in which the collections attained the prescribed standard of 100 per cent. or more on the current demand, and (ii) those in which the collections were short of that standard. The marginally-noted districts fall under the first class, and in their case no explanation is necessary.

Working of the Certificate procedure.

7. The total number of certificates filed for the realization of cess arrears was 77,523, against 139,613 of the previous year. The noticeable decline is shared by all the Divisions and is mainly attributable to the Board's Circular Order No. 16 of January 1902, prohibiting the issue of certificates for petty arrears, and allowing them to accumulate to Rs. 5, unless they are likely to be barred by limitation. The effect of the circular order is most marked in the Burdwan and Presidency Divisions. In Noakhali the falling off in the institutions is due to the fact that certificates had to be filed in the previous year in respect of all rent-free lands of Chakla Roshnabad transferred from Tippera. In Gaya the decrease was partly due to arrears from numerous zamindars having been realized, either by the personal exertion of the Deputy Collector in charge of the Cess Department, or by action taken under section 99 of the Act. The decrease in Bhagalpur is partly due to the arrear demand, with which the year opened, having been smaller than that of the preceding year, while that in Purnea, to the fact of the general revaluation of the district being given effect to late in the year. The decline in Palamau is said to be due to the fact that a large number of certificates had to be issued in 1901-1902 for the recovery of sums which were about to be barred by limitation, and also to the issue of warning post-cards. As regards the latter explanation the Commissioner's attention has been drawn to rule 8(d), section II of the Certificate Manual, 1898, to the effect that, so far as cesses are concerned, the practice of issuing warning post-cards, except as regards the first demand after a new assessment, should be discouraged. The decrease in Balasore is ascribed to certificates having been issued with great discrimination and only in selected cases. As compared with the preceding year, there was an increase in the number of certificates filed in the districts of Birbhum, Faridpur, Muzaffarpur, Darbhanga, Hazaribagh, Manbhum and Singhbhum. In Birbhum the increase is due to the fact that certificates had to be issued for the realization of cesses from chaukidari chakaran lands lately valued, and, in Faridpur, to the issue of a large number of certificates for the recovery of the arrears due from revenue-free estates and rent-free lands, so that they may not be barred by limitation. Better arrangements in the Cess Office for filing certificates punctually at the end of each kist led to the increase in the number of institutions in Muzaffarpur, while in Darbhanga it is reported to be due to the filing of by kist, instead of twice a year, as formerly. The Commissioner observes that, so far as these two districts are concerned, he is not satisfied that due effect is being given to the instructions contained in the Board's Circular regulating the issue of certificates for petty demands of Rs. 5 and less, and that he is making further enquiries into the matter. The increase in Hazaribagh is attributed to the discontinuance of the practice of issuing warning post-cards to defaulters, and, in Manbhum, to the institution of cases after each kist with punctuality. In Singhbhum the increase is said to be due to more vigorous action in enforcing demands.

8. The disposals exceeded the institutions in all the Divisions except Orissa and Chota Nagpur. Owing to the decrease in the number of certificates filed, the pending cases, as compared with the previous year, show a material reduction in all the districts, except Murshidabad, Khulna, Pabna, Faridpur, Malda, Cuttack, Hazaribagh, Palamau, Manbhum and Singhbhum. The increase in the number of pending cases in Murshidabad, Khulna, Malda, Cuttack, Hazaribagh and Palamau is due to the institution of numerous cases towards the close of the year. In Pabna, where the number of pending cases is comparatively large, the Collector has been directed to instruct the Deputy Collector in charge of the Certificate Department to reduce the file as soon as possible. The increase in the number of cases instituted in Faridpur led to the corresponding increase in the number of cases pending in the district, while in Singhbhum it is reported that some of the cases are pending for the realisation of costs only, as the judgment debtors have left the district, after remitting cesses by money-order; endeavour is being made to obtain their addresses. In Manbhum the increase was small.

Objections against certificates.

9. The total number of objections filed and disposed of were 8,210 and 7,808, against 11,759 and 11,493, respectively, of the previous year. The decrease is probably due to the smaller number of institutions during the year owing to the Board's Circular prohibiting the issue of certificates for petty arrears. The largest number of objections disposed of was in the districts of Burdwan (526), Noakhali (560), Shahabad (1,185) and Saran (2,107). In 756 cases against 1,146 of the preceding year, the certificates objected to were cancelled, the percentage slightly improving from 9·9 to 9·6. The number of cases in which reductions were made in the amount certified was 1,032 against 543. Out of 756 cases in which certificates were cancelled on objection, Burdwan and Dacca each contributed 84, Gaya 56, Saran 149, Muzaffarpur 63 and Monghyr 52. The cancellations were due to death and desertion of judgment-debtors, exemption of lands lying within municipal limits, double assessments, non-registration of names of holders of rent-free lands, errors in the Land Registration Registers, and wrong entries in the ledgers owing to the imperfect information supplied by parties in cháláns. The Commissioner of Patna reports that in the current year advantage has been taken of the temporary deputation to some districts of his Division of Sub-Deputy Collectors relieved from settlement for the improvement of Register D. In Monghyr where only 52 certificates were cancelled against 132 of the previous year, the Collector attributes the result to the improvement in the Land Registration Registers. The Commissioner of Bhagalpur expects further improvement when all the volumes of these registers are brought up to date. This is now being done.

Stage of procedure at which demands were satisfied.

10. In 36,346 cases, against 45,945 in 1901-1902, the cess arrears were recovered on the mere issue of notice; in 72,182, against 82,956 of the previous year, on the issue of notice for sale of defaulters' moveable property; and in 23,194 against 28,107 on the issue of notice for the sale of defaulters' immoveable property. Of the total number of sales (3,387 against 3,861 in 1901-1902), 1,300, or 38·3 against 38·6 were set aside under sections 20 and 21 of the Public Demands Recovery Act I (B.C.) of 1895, as amended by Act I (B.C.) of 1899. The highest number of sales set aside was in the districts of the 24-Parganas (58), Patna (118), Shahabad (90), Muzaffarpur (217), Darbhanga (284) and Monghyr (92), and this was partly due to the use made of section 21 of the Act by the proprietors of estates sold.

11. On the whole the administration of the Certificate Department during the year may be considered as satisfactory, as shown by the disposal of cases in excess of the institutions, and the considerable reduction in the number of cases remaining to be disposed of at the close of the year. The Circular Order to check the growth of certificates for petty arrears has had the desired effect of reducing the number of institutions during the year to an appreciable extent. Mr. Luson (Officiating Commissioner of Patna) makes the following observations on the working of the Circular:—

"I find little evidence from the figures that these considerate orders of the Board have materially affected collections, though no doubt they have resulted in the realisations being somewhat less than they would otherwise have been. Little loss is likely to be incurred eventually on account of the orders; and they save much harassment and unpopularity. The orders are, however, not in favour with the Deputy Collectors, as they tend at first to reduce collections somewhat; or with the clerical staff, as they materially reduce the number of certificates and involve more care being taken to see that claims are not barred by limitation; besides, it is the certificates for the smallest amounts which are most easily satisfied, and so the orders make it difficult for the Certificate Department to maintain its averages."

The Board agree with the Commissioner and would allow the rule to work, until sufficient experience has been gained.

* * * * *

14. In February last the orders of Government on the question of the assessment of rent-free lands were received. It has been decided that in all future revaluations, unless there are strong reasons to the contrary, assessment through the zamindars should be the rule, and not the exception.

Gross rental.

17. * * The road cess was first assessed in 40 districts, the gross rental or valuation of which was Rs. 13,11,68,432. Subsequently the districts of Khulna and Palamau were created, and the Cess Act, IX (B.C.) of 1880, was extended to them, and to parganas Dhalbhum and Porahat in the district of Singhbhum. The gross rental, or valuation, of the 43 districts shows an increase, from Rs. 17,03,53,369 in 1901-02 to Rs. 17,49,73,823, or, of Rs. 46,20,454, which is chiefly due to the revaluations in the districts of the 24-Parganas. Nadia, Khulna, Bogra, Backergunge, Gaya, Shahabad and Purnea and to the assessment of coal mines in Burdwan and Manbhum. In Singhbhum the decrease in the rental, which is always fluctuating, is due to the annual revision of assessment of mines and forests under section 79 of the Cess Act.

Merits of officers.

20. The following Deputy Collectors, who were in charge of the Cess Department for the whole year, have been favourably mentioned by the Commissioners:—

Mr. A. O. Mackertich, Murshidabad.
Babu Bhabani Prosad Neogi, Tippera.
Maulvi Syed Abdool Malek, Balasore.
Babu Narendra Kumar Chowdhuri, Midnapore.

In the districts mentioned against each of the above mentioned officers, the collections were above the standard of 100 per cent. on the current demand fixed by Government.

The following names of revaluation officers deserving of notice have also been taken from the Commissioners' reports;—

Babu Durga Nanda Das, Khulna.
" Kamal Chandra Dutta, Dacca.
" Phanindra Nath Mukherji, Faridpur.
" Har Sahay Lal, Gaya.

The mean pressure, temperature, etc., are deduced from the traces of the Barograph and Thermograph, and from eye observations.

The maximum and minimum temperatures are obtained from self-registering thermometers. All the thermometers are verified and the readings have been corrected to a standard constructed and verified at the Kew Observatory. They are exposed under a thatched shed open at the sides, and are suspended four feet above the ground.

The barometer readings are corrected approximately to those of the standard, Newman's No. 86, formerly at the Surveyor-General's Office.

The hygrometric elements are obtained from Tables III, IV and V of the official tables computed in the Meteorological Office, and based on Regnault's modifications of August's formula.

The directions and the movement of the wind are taken from the trace of a Beckley's anemograph.

The mouth of the rain-gauge is one foot above the ground. Rainfall reported on any day is for 24 hours preceding 8 A.M. of that day.

o, overcast; d, drizzling rain; p, passing temporary showers.

WITH reference to Notices to Mariners No. 204, dated 15th June, and No. 289, dated 29th August 1903, issued by this Office, the British Admiralty has given further notice that the following alterations which have been found necessary will be made on or about the 30th August next:—

The Beacons forming No. 1 Lead will be removed altogether.

In lieu thereof two Beacons showing Green Lights will be placed on the North Bank—one near the present Reflecting Beacon and the other opposite the present No. 1 White Light, as shown on plan which may be obtained at these offices.

Two Light Beacons (both red) will be placed on the North Bank, which, when in line, will lead through the Cutting to the Bend, and will be hereafter termed No. 1 Lead.

Sailing Directions.—To enter the River pass the Occulting Light Buoy at a distance of about 50 feet, and steer between the White Light on a Pile abreast the old Light-house and the first Green Light, which is placed between the Reflecting Beacon and the Cutting on a N.E. by E. course, passing the second Green Light at a similar distance until the New Lead on the North Bank (now termed No. 1 Lead) comes in line. Keep them in line until abreast of No. 2, then steer for No 3 as before.

This affects Admiralty Chart No. 1750.

P.S.—Owing to the nature of the work in progress this notice may require to be amended from time to time, and therefore should be treated as tentative only.

During the progress of the work at the Light's Passage Harbour, Masters exempt from pilotage may, if they so desire, avail themselves of the services of a pilot to assist them in passing the works, either in or out, at one-half of the usual pilotage rates.

If the usual exemption flag is not hoisted, it will be taken as a signal that a pilot is required. At night, if a pilot is wanted, the usual signal for a pilot should be shown.

RESOLUTION.

READ-

The Administration Report of the Commissioners of the Port of Chittagong for the year 1902-1903.

THE following statement shows the financial position of the Port Fund for the last two years:—

		1901-1902.	1902-1903.
		Rs.	Rs.
Opening balance		16,149	17,207
Receipts of the year		1,27,715	84,330
Total	...	1,43,864	1,01,537
Expenditure of the year ...	...	1,26,657	96,881
Closing balance ...	...	17,207	4,656

The receipts show a falling off of Rs. 43,385, due partly to a decrease under the heads "Port dues" and "Mooring fees," owing to fewer vessels having visited the port, and mainly attributable to the transfer of the Iron Jetty at Double Moorings to the Assam-Bengal Railway. The expenditure also showed a decrease of Rs. 29,776, due partly to only one year's instalment on account of the Gekko loan having been paid during the year, against two years' instalments during the previous year, and partly to the cost of the working of the abovementioned Iron Jetty not being charged to the Port Fund for the latter part of the year.

2. Shipping.—A total of 383 vessels aggregating 241,367 tons entered the port during the year, against 541 vessels with a tonnage of 270,113 during the previous year. Of these, 11 vessels with a tonnage of 23,795 entered from foreign ports, or one more than the previous year.

There was a large reduction, however, in the coasting trade, the arrivals being 372 vessels, against 531 vessels in 1901-1902. This decrease of 159 vessels was principally due to a short jute crop and to the fact that this staple now comes chiefly by rail.

In all 368 vessels aggregating 242,512 tons cleared from the port, against 536 vessels with a tonnage of 269,529 during the previous year. Of this number, 25 vessels aggregating 49,163 tons cleared for foreign ports, against 24 vessels aggregating 48,459 in 1901-1902. The increase was due to a sailing vessel which cleared for Trinidad with rice.

The coasting outward trade also showed a large reduction, the number of vessels cleared having been 343 with a tonnage of 193,349, against 512 vessels with an aggregate tonnage of 221,070 in the previous year. The decrease was due to fewer vessels having cleared for Narayanganj and to the discontinuance of the Special Steamer Service between Chittagong and Akyab.

Trade.—The principal articles of export are grain, jute and tea, and of imports mineral oil and salt. There was an increase under all heads except "Jute," which showed a decrease from 48,793 tons to 36,512 tons. This is due to a short crop and to larger shipments having been made from Calcutta, where freight is more easily obtainable.

Port Appliances.—The appliances of the port and light-houses are reported to have been kept in good order throughout the year.

Steam-tug "Gekko."—The steam-tug Gekko only towed one vessel during the year. She has been employed on the usual buoy mooring work, taking down stores and inspecting light-houses. The vessel has had all necessary repairs done and is in good order. The Gekko was obtained with the object of towing vessels visiting the port, but so few sailing vessels now visit the port that her services as a tug are seldom required. The earnings amounted to Rs. 2,830, while the expenditure, including instalments for repayment of loan with interest, amounted to Rs. 34,279.

Pilotage Fund.—The figures below show the financial position of the Pilotage Fund:—

	1901-1902.	1902-1903.
	Rs.	Rs.
Opening balance	43,643	52,865
Receipts of the year ...	20,737	16,914
Total ...	64,380	69,779
Expenditure of the year ...	11,515	11,594
Closing balance	52,865	58,185

The Pilot Service worked satisfactorily and there were no accidents during the year.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

W. A. INGLIS,

Offg. Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

RESOLUTION REVIEWING THE DIVISIONAL REPORTS ON THE WORKING OF THE DISTRICT BOARDS IN BENGAL DURING 1902-1903.

MUNICIPAL DEPARTMENT—(LOCAL SELF-GOVERNMENT).

Darjeeling, the 24th September 1903.

RESOLUTION No. 2567T.—M.

READ—

The Reports from the Commissioners of Divisions on the working of the District Boards in Bengal during 1902-1903.

Read again—

The Resolution reviewing the Divisional reports on the working of the District Boards in Bengal during 1901-1902.

There were 42 District Boards in existence during the year, as in the previous year; but the number of Local Boards decreased during the year under report from 106 to 104 owing to the abolition of the Sadar Local Boards at Darbhanga and Gaya. The number of Union Committees increased from 56 to 57 in consequence of the establishment of a Union at Patkabari in the district of Murshidabad. The variations in the figures of the areas controlled by the District and Local Boards and of the population of those areas are due to the correction of erroneous information supplied by certain District Boards in the previous year.

2. Constitution of District Boards.—The total number of members of District Boards was 842, or three less than in the previous year, the membership of each of the District Boards of Gaya, Balasore and Puri having decreased by one. The variations in the number of official and non-official members and in the number of European, Eurasian and Native members were trifling. During the year 638 meetings were convened by District Boards, or two less than in 1901-1902, of which the largest number was held by the District Boards of Saran and Puri (23 each): Rajshahi and Bogra come next with 20 meetings each, and Murshidabad, Backergunge and Monghyr follow closely with 19 meetings each; while the District Boards of Balasore and Manbhum each met only 11 times during the year, and the District Board of Hazaribagh only 6 times. As regards Manbhum and Hazaribagh, it is explained that there was not sufficient business of importance to justify the calling of more meetings, but no reasons have been assigned in the case of Balasore. The improvement which was noticed last year in the declining number of meetings which had to be adjourned, or which proved abortive for want of a quorum, was not consistently maintained during the year under review, the figures being 51, 47 and 49 respectively for the years 1900-1901, 1901-1902 and 1902-1903. The average attendance of official and non-official members at each meeting improved slightly.

3. Constitution of Local Boards.—The total number of members of the 104 Local Boards was 1,249, or 19 less than in the previous year. The fluctuations in their total strength and composition are chiefly due to the abolition of the Sadar Local Boards at Gaya and Darbhanga. The Local Boards convened 1,250 meetings during the year under report, or 45 more than in 1901-1902. The highest number (21) was attained by the Local Board of Kishorganj in Mymensingh. The Local Board of Faridpur comes next with 19 meetings, and the Local Boards of Pirojpur and Bihar follow closely with 18 meetings each. Of the number of meetings held during the year, 213 had to be adjourned or proved abortive for want of a quorum against 203 in 1901-1902. Thirty-nine Local Boards, as compared with 48 in 1901-1902, held less than 12 meetings during the year. The Local Boards which met least often were Naogaon, Puri and Alipur, which held 5 meetings or less during the year. The last named Board is said to have done practically no work, and the question of its abolition is already under the consideration of Government. There was a small improvement in the attendance of official members, while the attendance of non-official members shows a slight decrease.

4. Occupation of members.—Appendix F classifies the members of the District and Local Boards according to their professions and occupations; 37·7 per cent. of the total number of members were zamindars, talukdars and zamindars' servants (the landholding interest rightly being the most largely represented portion of the community); 24·4 per cent. were pleaders and mukhtears; 21·2 per cent. Government servants; 4·8 per cent. planters; 2 3 per cent. Government pensioners, and ·6 per cent. Missionaries, while 8·6 per cent. belonged to other professions. Compared with the figures for 1899-1900, which are the last on record (information on this subject being supplied triennially), the only change worthy of notice in the case of District Boards is that the percentage of Missionaries has increased from ·5 per cent. to 1 per cent. In the case of Local Boards the variations do not call for any remarks.

5. Elections.—General elections of members of District Boards were held during the year in Tippera and Noakhali. Those of Local Boards were held in the districts of Howrah, Midnapore, Murshidabad, Jessore, Khulna, Faridpur and Patna. Except in the Ulubaria subdivision of the district of Howrah, the elections do not appear to have aroused any public interest.

6. Powers of Local Boards.—The powers delegated to Local Boards remained unchanged in all the districts except (1) in Nadia where they were authorised to revise and recommend the stipends paid to primary schools, (2) in Jessore where the Local Boards of Narail, Magura and Jhenida were empowered to pass Dispensary bills, (3) in Faridpur, where the power of constructing new village roads was withdrawn, (4) in Saran where village roads costing over Rs. 10 a mile were placed under the management of the District Engineer, as were also all masonry works costing over Rs. 200, (5) in Monghyr, where the control of primary education was withdrawn, and (6) in Bhagalpur, where the District Board delegated to the Local Boards the administration of the funds for primary education and for the management of primary schools.

7. Union Committees.—As stated in paragraph 1, the number of Union Committees increased from 56 to 57. The aggregate number of their members also increased by 6, but the number of meetings convened by them decreased by 25, as compared with the previous year. The aggregate income of the Unions fell from Rs. 23,673 to Rs. 22,812 and the expenditure from Rs. 18,203 to Rs. 17,877. Thirty-three out of 57 Unions spent the whole or nearly the whole amount allotted to them, while no expenditure was incurred by the Memari Union in Burdwan, the Panchthupi and Benodepur Unions in the Presidency Division, and all the five Unions in the Orissa Division. The Basudebpur Union in the 24-Parganas and all the Union Committees in the district of Murshidabad are reported to have worked fairly well. In Khulna also some of the Union Committees are said to have displayed a keen interest in the exercise of their functions as far as their funds permitted. The Union Committee at Feni is reported to have done the work entrusted to it smoothly and well. The reports on the work done by Union Committees elsewhere are not favourable. On this subject, Mr. LeMesurier, Chairman of the Howrah District Board, remarks as follows:—

> "I inspected all of these bodies, except Domjur. They have failed to be really effective chiefly, I think, because they form an extra and overlapping body in a community which already possesses Chaukidari Panchayets, School and Dispensary Committees, and in one case a Bench of Honorary Magistrates. Should the persons of all these bodies be united in one, a very satisfactory nucleus of a 'Parish Council' would be formed."

Attention was called in last year's review to the opportunities which Union Committees possessed of stimulating local interest in sanitary improvements. This is their main raison d'être, and until signs appear that this object is likely to be achieved, no suggestions for the expansion of the system can be regarded as other than counsels of perfection.

8. Financial results.—The 42 District Boards in the Province began the year with an opening balance of Rs. 19,25,434 (corrected figures). Their income during the year amounted to Rs. 92,17,377 and the expenditure to Rs. 88,22,342. There was thus at the close of the year a credit balance of Rs. 23,20, 69; but of this sum more than three lakhs consisted of deposits, which were not at the disposal of the Boards.

The following statements show the principal heads of income and expenditure of District Boards during the past two years:—

INCOME.

9. Provincial rates (Rs. 43,80,832).—The net increase of Rs. 1,61,651 in the income under this head, which represents the proceeds of the road cess after deducting the cost of collection and revaluation, is shared by all the districts except Midnapore, Hooghly, Howrah, Murshidabad, Jessore, Dinajpur, Jalpaiguri, Pabna, Mymensingh, Faridpur, Backergunge, Noakhali, Champaran, Muzaffarpur, Malda and Palamau. It is due, as usual, to improved collections and to revaluations. The largest decrease occurred in Mymensingh, where the income from this source fell by Rs. 13,993. It is there attributed mainly to the reduction of arrear demands consequent on the improved collections of the preceding year. Elsewhere the decreases were comparatively small, and are in many cases due to similar causes.

10. Interest (Rs. 40,760).—The decrease of Rs. 180 is due to the smaller demands for recoverable arrears of road cess than in the preceding year.

11. Police (Rs. 4,86,815).—There was an increase of 95 in the total number of pounds under the management of District Boards, and of Rs. 10,204 in their total income. The increase of income is shared by 23 districts, while a decrease occurred in the districts of Birbhum, Hooghly, Murshidabad, Dinajpur, Rangpur, all the districts in the Dacca Division, Tippera, Chittagong, Saran, Champaran, Muzaffarpur, Darbhanga, Malda, Hazaribagh, Ranchi and Palamau. The increase is attributed to more favourable settlements and to better collection of rents. Where a decrease occurred, it is ascribed to various causes, such as failure to settle pounds and realize rents, and failure to obtain fair bids owing to the outbreak of plague and the contraction of indigo cultivation. The loss of income in Mymensingh is explained to be due to the introduction of stringent rules of inspections and of numerous prosecutions for breach of rules. Inspections disclosed the usual delinquencies on the part of pound farmers, which were, on the whole, adequately dealt with.

12. Education (Rs. 95,867).—The increase of Rs. 14,715 in the income under this head is noticeable chiefly under the head "Contributions." It was largest in Rangpur, where the income under that head advanced from Rs. 1,349 in 1901-1902 to Rs. 18,504 in 1902-1903, chiefly owing to a grant of Rs. 16,978 made by Government for the maintenance of the Technical School and for the remuneration of teachers in primary schools.

13. Medical (Rs. 61,358).—The receipts under this head increased by Rs. 1,684. The increase is far smaller than in the preceding year in which it amounted to Rs. 15,089. But being due to a larger realisation of private subscriptions and contributions, it cannot but be regarded as satisfactory so far as it goes.

14. Scientific and other minor departments (Rs 11,322).—The increase of Rs. 2,497 in the income under this head is mainly due to a contribution of Rs. 2,000 made by Babu Promotho Nath Roy Choudry of Santosh towards the cost of establishing a veterinary hospital at Nasirabad in the district of Mymensingh.

15. Miscellaneous (Rs. 2,13,785).—The receipts under this head increased by Rs. 4,009. The largest increase occurred in Shahabad, where it is explained to be due to larger receipts from the sale-proceeds of old stores and materials.

16. Irrigation, Minor Works, and Navigation (Rs. 18,105).—There was an increase of Rs. 856 in the revenue from canals in Chittagong, which was due, as in the previous year, to higher bids. The increase of Rs. 656 in Jessore represents the income from the settlement of tolls of the Hallifax canal excavated during the year by the District Board.

17. Civil Works (Rs. 18,94,330).—The increase, which amounted in all to Rs. 6,70,997, was largest under the sub-head "Contributions," under which an assignment made by Government towards the improvement of communications in backward districts chiefly accounts for the larger income. The income from tolls on ferries also improved by Rs. 30,945, the increase being shared by 22 out of the 42 districts. The ferries were regularly inspected, and the irregularities which were brought to notice were duly enquired into and generally remedied.

18. Contributions (Rs. 5,91,691).—The increase of Rs. 26,503 under this head is chiefly due to the special allotments made by Government for the improvement of primary education and for the employment of additional Sub-Inspectors.

19. Deposits and Advances (Rs. 14,31,742).—The receipts under this head, which represent sums deposited as security for the payment of revenue by ferry farmers, contractors and others, and also recoveries and adjustments on account of advances made from District Funds, increased by Rs. 2,63,610. The fluctuations are of no special importance.

EXPENDITURE.

20. Administration (Rs. 3,00,957).—The cost of general administration increased by Rs. 6,713, and was mainly due to a larger expenditure on office establishments, due to the system of incremental salaries.

21. Police (Rs. 24,152).—The slight decrease of Rs. 817 in the expenditure under this head is chiefly attributable to a reduced expenditure on the renewal and repairs of pound sheds. In Balasore it was due to the abolition of the post of the Pound and Ferry Inspector, and in Ranchi to the extension of the farming system with regard to pounds.

22. Marine (Rs. 9,838).—The slight decrease of Rs. 48 in the expenditure under this head calls for no remarks. As explained in last year's review, the expenditure is incurred in the subvention of private steamer services.

23. Education (Rs. 17,47,945).—The expenditure under this head increased by Rs. 4,16,019, and it is satisfactory to note that this increase is shared by all the districts, with the exception of Midnapore only, where the decrease is said to be merely nominal and due to the fact that rewards were not paid before the 31st March 1903. The increase occurred chiefly under the head "Grants-in-aid," and is due mainly to the special grants made by Government for the improvement of primary education and for the appointment of additional Sub-Inspectors.

There was an increase of 59 in the number of Sub-Inspectors of Schools maintained by District Boards, and of 19 in the number of Inspecting Pandits. Of schools maintained by District Boards, the number of high schools and lower primary schools remained stationary, but the numbers of middle, upper primary, and industrial schools increased during the year. The school shown under the head "other schools" against Bogra in the returns for 1901-1902 has, it appears, ceased to exist. The numbers of pupils attending these schools show a corresponding increase, with the exception of those attending high schools and industrial schools. Of schools aided by District Boards, the number of all classes, with the exception only of high schools, increased. The number of pupils attending them also increased, except in the case of high and middle schools, which show a slight falling off. The number of girls attending the upper and lower primary schools maintained by District Boards increased by 37, while the aggregate of those attending schools aided by those bodies improved to the extent of 16,188.

The District Boards continued to grant scholarships to female students in the various medical schools. The Commissioner of Rajshahi remarks that some District Boards in his Division might with advantage spend more on female medical education, although Rangpur sets an example which might be followed with advantage by more advanced districts in the Province.

The main features in the primary educational operations of District Boards during the year were the strengthening of the inspecting staff and the abolition of the system of payment to patsala gurus by results, and the introduction in its stead of a quarterly subsistence allowance, supplemented by a further allowance at the end of the year in consideration of attendance, efficiency and certain other tests. A very liberal grant was made by Government to the District Boards to enable them to introduce the new system, and to make an increased provision on account of the salaries of additional Inspecting Pandits or guru instructors and of additional Sub-Inspectors for the inspection of primary schools. It is too early now to pronounce an opinion on the merits of the system; but it is hoped that it will give greater stability and greater efficiency to the Patsalas and enable the supervising staff to devote more time to the inspection of primary schools in situ.

In filling up posts of Sub-Inspectors of Schools and Inspecting Pandits preference was, as far as practicable, given to Muhammadan candidates with the object of reducing the existing disproportion in the number of Hindu officials of those classes. In Rajshahi, however, where the Muhammadan population is three and-a-half times in excess of the Hindus, there are five Hindu Sub-Inspectors and no Muhammadans. The attention of the Board has been drawn to the matter by the Commissioner of the Division.

24. Special schools.—Of the Technical Schools at Burdwan, Midnapore, Pabna, Rangpur, Mymensingh, and Backergunge, which are maintained by their respective District Boards, the condition of that at Midnapore is reported to be unsatisfactory, though no details are given. It has, however, recently been placed under the management of the Education Committee of the District Board. The Sericultural School at Rampur Boalia and the Elliott Artizan School at Tippera continued to be a charge upon their respective District Boards. The District Boards of Noakhali, Mymensingh, Backergunge, Malda, and Cuttack provided by means of stipends for the training of students in the Sibpur Engineering College. The District Boards of Dacca, Faridpur, Backergunge, Noakhali, Gaya, Saran, Muzaffarpur, and Cuttack sent up students with scholarships to the Veterinary College at Belgachia, and all the District Boards in the Patna Division, as well as the District Boards of Monghyr, Bhagalpur, and Malda, sent students to the Bihar School of Engineering. The District Board of Birbhum awarded a stipend of Rs. 10 a month to a student, in order to enable him to be trained in the Sibpur Agricultural Class. The Bhagalpur District Board awarded two scholarships of Rs. 10 a month each to two boys sent to the Jaipur School of Arts to learn brazier's work, and the District Board of Malda similarly aided a student in prosecuting his studies in the Sericultural School at Rampur Boalia. The Cuttack District Board provided three scholarships of Rs. 20 each a month for technical education in the Jobra Workshop. The District Board of Noakhali continued to pay a scholarship of Rs. 10 a month to a student of the Calcutta Art School, the Balasore District Board aided two, and the Hazaribagh District Board three, local Industrial Schools. One Madrasa in Dacca and 11 in Mymensingh, as well as 33 tols in Mymensingh, 3 in Faridpur, 3 in Tippera, 2 in Noakhali, 2 in Chittagong, 1 in Manbhum, and 2 in Palamau received aid from their respective District Boards. The Nadia Board spent Rs. 243 in sending a potter of Krishnagar to the Bombay School of Art to learn drawing, designing and glazing. An expenditure of Rs. 455 was incurred by the District Board of Champaran on account of stipends of Gurus of primary schools sent to the Motihari Training School for instruction. In Burdwan a workshop was built by the District Board at a cost of Rs. 1,596.

25. Industrial development.—Attempts were made by several District Boards during the year to popularise the use of the fly-shuttle; but in most of the districts the local weavers failed to take much interest in learning its use. It is reported that this description of loom has long been used in several places in Pabna, Backergunge, and Malda. The Chairman of the District Board of Gaya states that the general feeling among local weavers is that they can work with their own indigenous hand-looms more freely and quickly than with the fly-shuttle. In Saran it was found that weavers came forward rather for the sake of the daily allowance which they received from the Board than with the object of acquiring practical knowledge. In Darbhanga the local weavers alleged that they were too poor to attend the classes without some remuneration which, however, the District Board declined to pay in addition to gratuitous instruction. From the Divisional reports it appears that the prospects of industrial education in this direction are not hopeful, as the local weavers generally failed to avail themselves of the opportunities placed at their disposal to receive a technical training. The only districts in which any progress was made in the experiment are Chittagong and Manbhum.

26. Medical (Rs. 3,89,379).—The decrease of Rs. 52,560 in the expenditure under this head is chiefly noticeable under sub-head "Miscellaneous" and is largest in the Patna Division. It is there explained to be due to the fact that the measures adopted for checking the progress of plague in the districts of Patna and Saran were on a smaller scale than in the previous year, and to the fact that no special expenditure was incurred in that direction by the District Boards of Champaran, Muzaffarpur, and Darbhanga.

In addition to treating the public gratuitously at their dispensaries, local aid was given by the District Boards wherever cholera or other epidemics broke out. In Darbhanga an establishment, consisting of one khalasi and four coolies, was employed for the destruction of larvæ of malaria-producing mosquitoes; the Lieutenant-Governor would be interested to hear the results of this experiment. Contributions were made by 15 District Boards during the year towards the maintenance of the Pasteur Institute at Kasauli.

The total number of dispensaries maintained by District Boards increased by 11, and the expenditure incurred upon them by Rs. 23,541. The District Board of Backergunge, as usual, maintained the largest number of dispensaries—35 in all. There was, moreover, an increase of 16 in the total number of dispensaries aided by District Boards and of Rs. 2,856 in the contributions made to such institutions. The largest number of dispensaries (16) to which contributions were given were those aided by the District Board of Faridpur.

27. Sanitation (Rs. 16,237).—The total outlay on this head decreased by Rs. 19,491, the largest decrease being in Gaya. It is there accounted for by the fact that the expenditure incurred in that district during 1902-1903 on sanitary precautions against the spread of plague was only Rs. 305, while in 1901-1902 it amounted to Rs. 13,706. Beyond the improvement of water-supply by constructing, repairing, and improving wells and disinfecting them, no important works of sanitation were undertaken by the several District Boards during the year, though the usual arrangements were made for the sanitation of fairs. In pursuance of the system inaugurated in 1900-1901 for the improvement of the sanitation of villages and rural towns, the Sadar and Dinapore Local Boards in the district of Patna cleansed 64 and 48 villages during the year, at a cost of Rs. 996 and Rs. 369, respectively. The scheme has been commended to the notice of the Commissioners of Divisions, who have been requested to give it a fair trial by such Local Boards as they may select. It has been pointed out to them that the residents and proprietors of villages may properly be called upon to contribute in money or in labour to such works before they are undertaken by the Local Boards.

28. Veterinary Charges (Rs. 17,006).—The total expenditure shows a slight decline. Veterinary dispensaries were opened during the year at Bankura and Ranchi by their respective District Boards, and other District Boards continued to maintain the veterinary institutions already in existence. More Veterinary Assistants were employed during the year, and the results reported are on the whole satisfactory. Those at Midnapore and Mymensingh were deputed to undergo a course of training in treating rinderpest with serum. Cattle-disease broke out in Khulna, and it is reported that out of 1,410 cattle inoculated with anti-rinderpest serum, only 3 died. There was also an outbreak of rinderpest among the municipal cattle at Muzaffarpur and in the Sitamarhi subdivision of the same district, and foot-and-mouth disease appeared in the villages in the interior, but the measures taken to suppress the disease have not been reported.

29. Civil Works (Rs. 45,96,854).—The total outlay under this head shows a net decrease of Rs. 88,937. Six sub-heads, viz., "Communications—Original Works," "Drainage—Original Works," "Other Works of Improvement," "Establishment and Contingencies," "Staging Bungalows and Serai Establishment and Charges," and "Tools and Plant" show an increased expenditure amounting to Rs. 1,07,228, while the other sub-heads, viz., "Buildings," "Communications—Repairs," "Water-supply and Water-works," "Drainage—Repairs," and "Miscellaneous" show a decreased expenditure amounting to Rs. 1,96,165. The largest decrease (Rs. 96,263) occurred in Rangpur, where it is said that less general repair works were undertaken in the year under report than in the previous year. The decrease was also very large in Darbhanga, where it amounted to Rs. 94,564; it is attributed to the default of local contractors in executing the works entrusted to them and to the failure of some Calcutta firms to supply the materials ordered. Details of the chief works executed by the several District Boards during the year are furnished in the Divisional reports. It appears that the most important and costly works were undertaken in some of the districts of the Dacca and Patna Divisions. In the Dacca Division the chief work taken in hand was the construction of a road from Backergunge to Patuakhali, on which Rs. 41,421 were spent during the year, and in the Patna Division the most important work undertaken was the metalling of the first six miles of the Aurungabad-Daudnagore Road in Gaya, on which Rs. 25,552 were spent up to 31st March 1903.

30. Water-supply and water-works (Rs. 1,31,842).—The expenditure under this head decreased by Rs. 24,288. The largest decrease was in Backergunge, amounting to Rs. 8,395: it is ascribed to the inability of the Local Boards to spend the full allotments placed at their disposal owing chiefly to the difficulty in securing sites for wells. No expenditure was incurred under this head by the District Boards of Hooghly and Chittagong, though in the latter district a well was constructed during the year at a cost of Rs. 500, which was not disbursed during the year. In the case of Hooghly the failure is not explained. Excavation and re-excavation of tanks and wells and the improvement of the existing sources of water-supply were the chief works undertaken in this direction by the several District Boards during the year. As in previous years, the District Boards of Shahabad and Bhagalpur paid contributions of Rs. 4,000 and Rs. 5,000 a year, respectively, to the local municipalities towards the maintenance of the water-works at the head-quarters of the district. The Raja of Kakina in Rangpur made a gift of Rs. 2,000 during the year for the improvement of the water-supply of the district. The Lieutenant-Governor regrets to notice that the same difficulty which was noticed in last year's Resolution still prevents some of the District Boards in the Presidency Division from expending the full amount of their allotments for the improvement of tanks, viz., that the zamindars who own them are unwilling either to excavate them themselves for the benefit of their tenants or to make them over to the Boards. The Boards are, however, taking steps to remove the scarcity of water felt in these tracts, and the Lieutenant-Governor trusts that their efforts will meet with further success. Tube-wells have been introduced in the districts of Howrah, Dacca, and Purnea. Some details have been furnished in this connection by the District Board of Howrah. The wells are kept in repair by mistries employed by the Board, who pay a round of visitations, equipped with a set of repairing tools and petty materials required for the purpose. The initial cost is about Rs. 100 for each well, besides a maintenance charge of Rs. 10 a year. A guarantee is sometimes taken from the villagers for the safety of the pump. It has been suggested that the well should be sunk and maintained by local contract. The suggestion seems a good one, and the Lieutenant-Governor will be glad to hear what results are achieved in this direction. The example is one which other districts might profitably follow.

31. Drainage Works.—Small expenditure was incurred under this head by the District Boards of the 24-Parganas, Murshidabad, Jessore, Tippera, and Noakhali. The great work of draining the Chalan and Cherial bils, lying within the districts of Pabna and Rajshahi, is in progress, and it is reported that these projects will take longer to finish than was anticipated. Up to 31st March 1903, a sum of Rs. 13,056 was spent on the engineering, survey, and office establishment employed for the preparation of the survey of the first-named project

32. Roads.—The total number of roads maintained by the several District Boards during the year increased from 8,666 to 9,429. There was also an increase of 1,585 miles in their aggregate length and of Rs. 1,42,531 in the total cost of their maintenance. Of these roads, 540, with a length of 2,748 miles, were metalled; and 2,508, with a length of 25,163 miles, unmetalled; while 6,381, with a total length of 18,141 miles, were classed as village roads. Many districts show remarkable fluctuations in the number and mileage of their metalled roads, but these variations are apparently attributable to reclassification in accordance with the instructions laid down in Government Circular No. 1T.—M., dated the 23rd April 1903. In successive reviews it has been pointed out that the discrepancies which invariably occur detract much from the value of the information contained in Appendix C, and the Lieutenant-Governor requests that the figures of the statement may in future be carefully examined by all Chairmen themselves, and he hopes that the adoption of a uniform system of classification will prevent the recurrence of such errors in future. Of the total expenditure incurred on metalled roads, Rs. 2,82,739 were spent on original works and Rs. 7,41,980 on repairs; and of that incurred on unmetalled roads, the cost of original works was Rs. 10,47,862 and of repairs Rs. 9,24,180. The largest expenditure incurred in any one district during the year on metalled roads was incurred in the district of Burdwan, where it amounted to Rs. 85,765; the 24-Parganas stands second with an expenditure of Rs. 73,134; and Chittagong last with Rs. 60 only. The District Board of Palamau, as in the previous year, incurred no expenditure under this head. The outlay on unmetalled roads was highest in Muzaffarpur, viz., Rs. 1,28,547, and least in Balasore, viz., Rs. 7,788. The cost per mile of district metalled roads was highest in Manbhum (Rs. 2,337), where much money was spent on roads in the colliery tracts, and lowest in Chittagong (Rs. 29); that of unmetalled district roads, was highest in Backergunge (Rs. 393), and lowest in Nadia (Rs. 15). On the construction and maintenance of 10 miles of village roads the District Board of Jalpaiguri expended Rs. 9,863. This exceptionally high rate per mile is, however, accounted for by the fact that practically the whole of this expenditure was incurred in bridging and raising a single expensive road. Elsewhere the cost per mile of roads of this class ranged from Rs. 113 in Backergunge to Rs. 3 in Rangpur.

It is worthy of note that the expenditure incurred on the construction and maintenance of roads in 1902-1903 was considerably above the average of the last five years, and that the cost per mile of metalled and unmetalled roads was Rs. 373 and Rs. 78, respectively, against an average for the previous three years of Rs. 317 and Rs. 73.

33. In paragraph 37 of last year's Resolution, the Lieutenant-Governor reviewed the manner in which the first grant of Rs. 5,00,000 to the several District Boards for the improvement of communications had been expended, and noted, with approval, that about one-third of the grant had been allotted for feeder roads, and about the same amount for bridging. The allotment was continued for another year. The state of the Provincial finances at the opening of the present year has enabled His Honour to sanction the distribution of a third grant of Rs. 5,00,000, among the several Divisions, on the same conditions as those originally laid down, but he is unable to hold out any promises for the future.

34. Miscellaneous Public Improvements.—In all districts, except Chittagong, arboriculture received attention from the District Boards, and money was spent in planting and maintaining trees on roadsides. Working plans for roadside arboricultural operations have been prepared in most of the districts for the guidance of their District Engineers. In the districts of Rajshahi and Saran, however, nothing was done in this direction during the year, and the reports from the district of Champaran and all the districts of the Chota Nagpur Division are silent on the point. In Chittagong, out of 4,152 avenue trees, 1,228 were blown down by the cyclone of October 1897. Since then the working plans in that district have been discontinued for want of funds.

35. Railway Feeder Roads.—New roads as feeders to railways were constructed by the District Boards of Burdwan, the 24-Parganas, Jalpaiguri, Rajshahi, Bogra, Tippera, Muzaffarpur, Bhagalpur, and Puri. Existing feeder roads, and those taken in hand during the previous year, were maintained, improved, and completed by the District Boards named above, and also by the District Boards of Birbhum, Bankura, Midnapore, Howrah, Khulna, Nadia, Dacca, Faridpur, Mymensingh, Noakhali, Chittagong. Patna, Gaya, Darbhanga, Shahabad, Purnea, Monghyr, Cuttack, Balasore, Palamau and Manbhum. The feeder road connecting Goborchapa with the Akkelpur Railway station in the district of Rajshahi, for which contributions amounting to Rs. 16,800 were made from Provincial revenues, was completed during the year. The feeder roads to railways in the district of Rangpur and the feeder road from Jamalganj Railway station to Etakholahat in the district of Bogra, for which also, Government made special grants, were partly constructed during the year.

36. Railways and Tramways.—The extension of the Howrah-Amta Light Railway from Jagatballabhpur to Autpur was in progress during the year. A scheme for the construction of a light railway from Ullapara to Kalbunder, the steamer station below the town of Sirajganj, has been prepared by the District Board of Pabna and referred to Government for consideration. Negotiations for opening a steam tramway line from Dacca to Sealo opposite Goalundo are still in progress. A line from Tangail to Ballar viâ Mymensingh and Netrokona is being surveyed at the cost of the District Board of Mymensingh. A project for a tramway from Barisal to Palardi, with an objective of ultimate extension to Faridpur viâ Madaripur, is under the consideration of the District Board of Backergunge. The Buktiarpur-Bihar Light Railway has been opened since the close of the year. In Shahabad the construction of a light narrow-gauge railway on the Arrah-Sasaram Road is being considered by the District Board. Three projects for narrow-gauge railways or tramways, as means of improving district communications, were contemplated by the District Board of Bhagalpur; but though a line from Bhagalpur to Deoghur viâ Bausi was selected as the most likely project, it is still wholly in embryo.

37. Contributions (Rs. 71,398).—The expenditure under this head represents contributions made by District Boards towards the cost of the Police force employed at plague camps, refunds of the unexpended balance of Government grants for special works, payments on account of cost of establishments in the offices of account and control, and contributions made by District Boards to Union Committees. The total expenditure declined by Rs. 1,53,455, and though the fluctuation is large, it calls for no special remarks.

38. Deposits and Advances (Rs. 13,44,109.)—The large increase of Rs. 2,86,093 under this head is chiefly due to the change in the classification of accounts introduced in the previous year, under which the expenditure on Provincial roads and Civil buildings, which was formerly shown under the head "Civil Works," is now debited to this head.

39. Closing balances (Rs. 23,20,469.)—The actual closing balance of the 42 District Boards during the year exceeded that of the previous year by

Rs. 3,20,955. It amounted to more than half of the year's income in Nadia and Darbhanga, and to more than one-third in Midnapore, Rajshahi, Faridpur, and Shahabad. Satisfactory explanations have been rendered of the heavy balances of the Nadia, Midnapore, Rajshahi, and Faridpur District Funds, but no reason has been given in the cases of Darbhanga and Shahabad.

40. Amendment of the Bengal Local Self-Government Act.—The draft Bill to amend the Bengal Local Self-Government Act was submitted to the Government of India for their consideration and orders in November 1902. The observations and suggestions of that Government on the Bill, which were communicated in August last, are now under the consideration of the Lieutenant-Governor.

41. Administrative changes.—Certain rules were laid down in 1899 for the carrying out of Imperial and Provincial Civil Works through the agency of District Boards. These rules provided for the payment of contributions to local bodies to meet charges for establishment and other charges connected with the preparation and execution of projects for works costing Rs. 2,500 and above. It was represented that requisitions were frequently made upon District Boards by the Police, Jail, Medical, and other Civil Departments for plans and estimates for works, which those Departments carried out departmentally, and that it was not unusual for Civil Departments to request the District Engineer to supervise, check, and examine works done by the Departments themselves, or even to carry out the works. The cost of such works rarely exceed Rs. 2,500; but it was urged that a greater expenditure of time and labour was required in the preparation of numerous plans and estimates of small amounts than in that of any single estimate for a large project. These reasons appeared to the Lieutenant-Governor to be sufficiently cogent to establish a claim on the part of the District Boards to some remuneration in respect of such works. It was accordingly directed that when District Boards prepare estimates and plans and execute works on behalf of a Civil Department, they shall be paid the full amount of the percentage allowed by the rules on all estimates, irrespective of the individual amount of each.

42. The attention of Government was drawn to the inconvenience of the existing procedure under which any case in which it was proposed to give a pension or gratuity to servants of District Boards, who were not provided for under the Provident Fund Rules, had to be referred to Government for special sanction. It was pointed out that such cases would probably become more numerous, and it was suggested that it might be desirable to adopt some rules with the object of providing for employés of this class, either on the lines of Government pension and gratuity rules or on those of the existing Provident Fund Rules. The opinion of Commissioners of Divisions and of local bodies was invited on the subject. The opinions received showed that there was in many cases a feeling that provision should be made for pensions or gratuities to employés drawing less than Rs. 15 per mensem, who did not come within the scope of the original Provident Fund Rules, and after considering the replies, the suggestions which commended themselves to the Lieutenant-Governor were that contributions to the Provident Fund should be made compulsory, on their admission to service, in the case of all employés drawing not less than Rs. 10 per mensem, while to inferior servants gratuities and pensions on the scale and conditions of Article 524 of the Civil Service Regulations should be allowed. A set of model rules based on these principles was framed for the guidance of local bodies, and they have already been adopted by several District Boards.

43. The general consensus of opinion among the Commissioners of Divisions is that the majority of the District Boards have worked smoothly and satisfactorily, and that their members have shown a praiseworthy interest in the affairs entrusted to their charge. A satisfactory feature of the year's progress is the awakening of public interest in Local-Self Government in at least one of the districts of the Orissa Division, but the Commissioner remarks that in the other two the tendency still exists to leave all duties and responsibilities to the official Chairman. Local Boards receive the meed of fainter praise. The Commissioner of the Dacca Division comments on the little interest displayed by their members even in works designed for the benefit of their own immediate vicinity. The Commissioner of Rajshahi remarks that they are generally a failure, suggesting, however, that this is due rather to the comparatively insignificant nature of their duties than to any defect of system. A more genuine and widespread interest in their work, however, must be displayed before the Local Boards can expect to attain greater powers, and the Lieutenant-Governor would remind the members of these bodies that it rests entirely with themselves to justify a further devolution of functions.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

L. P. SHIRRES,

Secretary to the Govt. of Bengal.

FINAL FORECAST OF THE JUTE CROP IN BENGAL FOR THE SEASON 1903.

THE following note is published for general information.

A. EARLE,
Offg. Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

The 24th September 1903.

DEPARTMENT OF LAND RECORDS AND AGRICULTURE, BENGAL.

Final Forecast of the Jute Crop in Bengal for the Season 1903.

SINCE the issue of the preliminary forecast, Collectors report very great improvement in prospects. The late-sown crops have done well, and 16 districts show a higher estimate, 7 remain the same, and 3 are reduced, the only important reduction being for Rangpur from 80 to 75. Among the increased estimates are:—

Hooghly	62·5 to 97
Jessore	65 to 77
Dinajpur	50 to 85
Bogra	68 to 78
Pabna	75 to 85
Mymensingh	90 to 97
Faridpur	75 to 86
Tippera	90 to 100
Purnea	73 to 100
Noakhali	60 to 80
Bhagalpur	84 to 89

The Collectors now return the area sown this year as 2,209,300 acres, as against 2,019,000 in their preliminary report. Mymensingh, Tippera, Nadia, and Malda are responsible for the increase, but chiefly Mymensingh. In this district the Collector only joined his post just before the issue of the preliminary forecast and accepted the figures reported. He has now made detailed inquiries, and I have also toured in this and other important jute-growing districts. We agree in returning the normal area under jute for this district as 705,000 acres instead of 562,100 acres returned in the preliminary forecast, and the area under the crop this year as 650,000 instead of 500,000. As the result of his inquiries he has raised the outturn also from 90 to 97. In my opinion, on the area sown it is fully 100. The other increases in area and in outturn are explained by the success of the late-sown crop and favourable rain in August. It will be observed, that, mainly owing to the increase in Mymensingh, Collectors return the normal area at 2,469,900 acres. I am not prepared to accept this figure without further careful inquiries, which are now being instituted. The effect would be to raise the normal outturn to about 74 lakhs of bales. I wish to add here that the preliminary forecast would be more valuable if it was produced on 7th July. If this is the opinion of the market, Government may be moved to alter the date. The Collectors' returns work out to 87 per cent. on an area of 2,209,300 acres. Allowing for the tendency to underestimate both area and outturn, and in accordance with other inquiries, reports, and my own observations, I anticipate that in 2¼ lakhs of acres the outturn will be not less than 93·75, or 15 annas—amounting to 63½ lakhs of bales.

Not included in the above is an estimate of 90,000 bales from Assam and the following figures supplied by the Superintendent of the Cooch Behar State:—

	Normal area under jute.	Area under jute in 1903.	Outturn.
	Acres.	Acres.	Per cent.
Cooch Behar State	25,000	23,200	68

Thus an outturn of 50,000 bales may be expected from Cooch Behar, and the total crop from all sources should amount to nearly 65 lakhs of bales.

Stocks of the crop of 1902 are reported to be very low indeed.

S. L. MADDOX,
Offg. Director of the Dept. of Land Records and Agriculture, Bengal.

CALCUTTA,
The 21st September 1903.

Burdwan ...	Burdwan	1,720,960	1,284,200	11,000	11,000	6,700	76	75	Deficiency in rainfall accounts for the lower area under jute.
	Midnapore ...	3,319,040	2,190,600	14,080	12,900	10,600	100	80	Decrease in area and outturn of this year is due to want of rain.
	Hooghly	1,087,360	483,930	12,000	13,300	12,300	90	97	Want of timely rain accounts for the decrease in area, but the subsequent rainfall has been timely, and beneficial to the crop.
Presidency	24-Parganas ...	3,574,351	1,079.700	63,400	59,300	57,000	100	90	The figures in columns 4 and 9 have been revised.
	Nadia	1,787,520	639,500	47,800	31,000	36,000	97	65	The increased area is due to good outturn obtained last year. The outturn this year is, however, poorer owing to want of timely rainfall.

Presidency—concld.	Murshidabad ...	1,373,620	963,500	21,700	16,600	18,000	95	97	Seasonable rainfall has resulted in increase of area and outturn. The increase of area is also due to the abandonment of the Laltakuri embankment. Jute in this district is generally a poor crop grown on churs.
	Jessore	1,872,000	1,203,800	40,800	33,600	30,700	74	77	Rains since the submission of the preliminary report have not only improved the crops greatly, but have also resulted in increased sowings.
	Khulna	3,103,942	670,000	20,500	11,600	9,100	85	86	The decrease in the area sown is due to deficient rainfall in April and May. The increase in the outturn is due to seasonable rainfall in July and August.
	Rajshah	1,663,040	1,262,100	105,700	100,000	84,000	75	60	The area has been reduced from 85,000 acres, as given in the preliminary forecast, to 84,000 acres. This is entirely due to want of rain.
	Dinajpur ...	2,526,080	1,697,600	102,000	90,000	60,000	30	85	Reports have been more hopeful lately, and according to my best information the outturn will be at least as large as stated.

Rajshahi	Jalpaiguri	1,804 600	525 000	77 900	60,700	68 100	78	0	The estimated outturn is below the normal owing to deficient rainfall
	Darjeeling	744 300	148,200	,700	2 500	2,200	90	91	The crop has been somewhat better than was anticipated owing to sufficient rainfall.
	Rangpur	2,235 520	1,602,700	340,000	327,200	302,200	98	75	Owing to the insufficiency of rain at the sowing season (March to May) and also at the growing season (July) the crop has not thriven well
	Bogra	869 760	622,000	96,000	70,000	72,000	70	73	Outturn has improved owing to seasonable rainfall towards the latter part of the season. It is, however, below the normal ordinarily obtained.
	Pabna	1,176,960	882 500	144,800	153,000	140,000	70	95	Owing to favourable weather and slow rise of the river, the outturn will be larger than was anticipated in the preliminary forecast.
Dacca	Dacca	1,780,480	1,214 500	171 000	155,000	171 000	70	80	Late rains have improved the condition of the crop
	Mymensingh	4,052,480	2,405 700	706,400	500,000	650,000	70	97	In submitting my preliminary forecast I adopted the normal area as shown by my predecessor, who cut down the estimate of the Subdivisional Officers. Since then I have had opportunities of forming an opinion of my own, and I do not think the estimate of the Subdivisional Officers too high. Favourable weather in August improved the crop materially
	Faridpur	1,459 840	1,132,600	100,000	110,000	95,000	75	80	Increase due to full crop in the Madaripur subdivision.
	Backergunge	2,335,360	1 416,000	10,000	10,000	10,000	50	50	The outturn is much below the normal this year owing to want of rain at the sowing season.

Division.	District.	Total area of the district.	Estimated total area under cultivation.	Approximate normal area under jute.	Approximate area sown last year (1902).	Estimated area sown this year (1903).	Taking 100 to represent the normal outturn, how much represented outturn last year (1902)? Chittagong ...	Tippera	1,599,360	1,209,000	266,400	235,000	[illegible]6,400	50	100	Conditions at the beginning of the season were unfavourable, and, the area sown was consequently reported as less than the normal. But as a result of careful enquiry made throughout the jute-producing areas in July and August, it appears that the area under cultivation this year is not less than the normal. The character of the season in its later stages has been favourable
	Noakhali	1,052,800	784,800	4,500	2,100	4,600	30	80	The increase in columns 5 and 7 is the result of a special enquiry. The better outturn is due to absence of heavy rainfall at the time of sowing.
Bhagalpur ...	Bhagalpur ...	2,704,640	2,007,000	22,400	22,200	20,700	96	89	There is very little of jute crop in the district. Want of rain has affected the growth of the crop specially in the Sadar subdivision.
	Purnea	3,195,513	1,639,800	55,000	53,000	49,300	75	100	The figure 53,000 shown in column 6 is a correct figure, as will appear from the final forecast of the last year. The decrease in area sown this year is due to want of sufficient rainfall in July.
	Malda	1,216,000	675,800	38,500	29,200	24,300	100	75	The area and outturn are less than normal owing to the short rainfall of the year. In many places cultivators had difficulty in steeping the plants for want of rain.

Orissa ...	Cuttack	3,203,149	1,161,200	4,800	5,000	5,900	100	100	The outturn is estimated at 100 per cent. (average), the rainfall being favourable to the crop.

This gives 63·28 lakhs of bales, or approximately 63¼ lakhs of bales. Add to this for Assam 90,000 bales and for Cooch Bihar 50,000 bales. Total approximate produce estimated by the Director of Land Records=65 lakhs of bales.
